

COMMISSION ON GOVERNMENT SECURITY
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

June 6, 1956

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Confirming our telephone conversation, I would appreciate it very much if you could arrange to talk to the full meeting of the Commission on Government Security at 10 a.m. on Saturday, June 16, 1956, in its offices at 441 G Street, N. W.

If you could discuss some of the dangers of international Communism, particularly stressing the fact that in a cold war the danger of infiltration is still an immediate threat, I feel that it would be very helpful.

Your acceptance of this invitation, I can assure you, is very much appreciated by the Commission.

Sincerely,
(Signed) Loyd Wright
